Chief Office letter Rc.1016/Acct/47, dated 13-9-1947 to the Secretary Madras Government regarding continuance of permanent advance Rs.1000/- for feeding charges. Govt. sanction not yet received. In the abasence of Govt. sanction bills for feeding charges advance cannot be drawn. Request Government be moved for early sanction orders. Due to additional forces received from other districts and bandobust arrangements at various places the present advance of Rs.1000/- is found insufficient. Request sanction for the increase of advance by Rs.500/-. Requisition for advance of Rs.1,500/- follows through proper channel. Government order may kindly be communicated urgently.

Police - Bellary District. Additional Permanent Advance - Rs. 1,500/-

The G.O. of Police requests that an additional permanent advance of Rs. 1,500/- may be sanctioned to the D.S.P. Bellary to meet the expenditure on account of the feeding charges of the additional forces received in that district from other districts for bandobust duty. In G.O. No. 1383, Home, dated 8-4-1947 a temporary increase of Rs. 1,000/- in the permanent advance held by the D.S.P. Bellary ~~was sanctioned upto 30.9.47~~, and certain other D.S.Ps. was sanctioned upto 30.9.47. The question of continuing the advance sanctioned in the G.O. cited upto 31.3.48 is separately under consideration in the linked file. While offering his remarks on the proposal referred to above, the A.G. has suggested that the temporary increase of Rs. 1000/- sanctioned to the D.S.P. Bellary and certain other D.S.Ps. districts does not seem to justify the retention of the ad

permanent advance. He has however stated that if any emergency arises, a fresh advance may be sanctioned by Govt. to meet the needs of the occasion. The A.G's suggestions have been remitted to the D.G. for his further remarks and they are awaited. 'A' cf. ff 1-6 p. 13 c/f ff 1-6

2. It may be noted that the D.G. has not submitted his present proposal to for the continuance of the permanent temporary increase of Rs. 1,000/- and for the sanction of an additional advance of Rs. 500/- to the D.S.P. Bellary, through the A.G., Madras. He has not done so presumably on account of the fact that the D.S.P. Bellary required the amount immediately, since he had sent a wireless message. It does not appear that the A.G. will object to the present proposal of the D.G. viz. to sanction an additional advance of Rs. 1,500/- to the D.S.P. Bellary in view of his statement at 'A' above. It does not appear necessary to refer the matter to the A.G. Madras now. 'D' on p. 1-2 c/f ff 1-6

3. It has been stated that the additional advance

~~[illegible]~~ asked for is required to meet the pending charges of police forces received from other districts for bandobast duty. ~~It is not known in which bandobast connection, the additional forces have been received from other districts. It does not however appear necessary to obtain this information from the~~ The advance asked for may be sanctioned, pending which with reference to para 2 of Rs 9:6:5 T II on p 2 c/f draft order submitted is for approval. May be sent to Finance for acceptance.
